Omar Trabelsi

Master in Business Analytics (MIBA) at ESADE

San Cugat del Vallés, Catalogne, Espagne

Summary

Hello there, I'm Omar Trabelsi, currently pursuing a Master in Business Analytics at Esade Business School in Barcelona, Spain. Before that, I completed my Bachelor in Business Administration (BBA) at Esade, graduating after four years with a digital minor. With a strong passion for Sales, Marketing, and Consultancy, I've built experiences across various industries that have strengthened my knowledge and adaptability.

My areas of interest also complement my academic background: I enjoy music (organizing events for the last 2 years) and activities that promote strong analytical training (Sudoku, Rubik's cubes, word puzzles). These experiences have instilled valuable skills that benefit all aspects of my life.
